4 TEAM SPIRIT

Getting in shape is going the way of the group. Make New Year's resolutions stick on the obstacle course at Bootcamp Republic (nationwide), at Flywheel Sports (where Flybarre Challenge participants compete for most inches lost during the course of six weeks), or by rooting one another on at As One, the Manhattan circuit-training studio.

7 BALENCIAGA'S BLACK CHERRY

Hovering beneath the brim of low-sloping hats on Balenciaga's spring runway: Pat McGrath's high-gloss "black cherry" mouth had editors instantly riveted. "It was about power," McGrath says of the look, which she created by layering CoverGirl Queen Collection lipstick in Fine Wine (top) over LipPerfection lipstick in Euphoria (bottom).

ESCAPE TO THE SURF—OR THE SNOW

5 Just in time for resort season at the Christian Liaigre–designed Le Sereno on St. Barth's (above): a brand-new waterfront spa. Try the Chill Out, an inspired take on the traditional hot-stone massage, featuring round clams and a self-heating clay-and-seaweed mask; lesereno.com.

6 At the St. Regis in Aspen, champagne, Vosges chocolates, and strawberries aren't just dessert—they're part of the Great Bath treatment at the newly opened Remède Spa. Also on the après-ski menu: a retreat to the steam caves, waterfall lounge, or cold plunge; stregisaspen.com/spa.

8 CHANNEL KATE

No one puts a look together quite like Kate Moss—which is precisely what makes her micro-edited collection of Lasting Finish Lipsticks (above, #14) and a made-for-smoky-eyes Union Jack shadow palette (Black Cab, top) for Rimmel so completely covetable.

9 BROOKLYN BOUND

Its easy atmosphere and strikingly cool decor has made Tommy Guns the go-to hair salon (and general hangout) of downtown musicians and models. Now the Manhattan-based barbershop has opened a Williamsburg outpost (above) featuring an apothecary stocked with Agua de Colonia perfumes and Carter and Bond bone-handled razors. The salon's most precious treasure, however, may be editorial hairstylist (and Brooklyn local) Duffy, who is available for cuts when he's not on set. 85 North 3rd Street, Brooklyn; (718) 388-8288.

10 WAX RHAPSODIC

Eyebrow archer Kristie Streicher is so sought after, her clients on the East and West Coasts time their appointments to her schedule, patiently waiting for her to breeze back into town. For her L.A. loyalists, life just got a little sweeter: Tucked inside the Warren-Tricomi Salon on Melrose, the Kristie Streicher Beauty Bar has just opened (with two trained Streicherettes). There's brow shaping and tweezing, Lash Dip and extensions, and makeup application. Now for a New York outpost...
